Before joining the GSL team, Elizabeth worked as a registered lobbyist in Harrisburg. She has extensive experience representing clients in the education, economic development and transportation spaces, and helping them to develop public policy solutions while navigating the legislative process.

In her current capacity, Elizabeth plays an integral role in GSL's business development work, particularly with efforts regarding the Redevelopment Assistance Capital Program (RACP) and the Entertainment Economic Enhancement Program.

Additionally, Elizabeth assists the GSL team in crisis communications, earned media strategies and paid branding solutions for organizations. She also helps to lead public affairs design and delivery.

Elizabeth was honored to receive Harrisburg Young Professionals "20 in Their 20s" award in 2023.

She attended Penn State University and received a Bachelor of Arts in Communication with a concentration in Public Relations. Elizabeth was a member of the Phi Theta Kappa National Honor Society.

Elizabeth is an avid golfer and volunteers with LPGA*Girls Golf USA in the Central Pennsylvania area. She is also a member of the Harrisburg Young Professionals.
